Dear Sir:-

Just how could I get a U. S. Distinguished Service Cross for my collection.

You had gave me the address of A. H. Baldwin in London and I have purchased quite a number from them, but that U. S. Cross is sure hard to get.

Dear Sir:

It is very hard to get an American Distinguished Service Cross. There is a law against their being exposed for sale and as they are of bronze they have no hocking value. The only way to get them is through possibly some of the dealers in this country of which I enclose a list and you might write to some of these.

Very truly yours,
